

It is pretty obvious that satellite radio has competition. If that were not so why would NAB be so opposed to the merger? Satellite radios competition comes from terrestrial radio.

The merger will provide better service to the consumer and will eventually lead to better radio available in remote areas of Alaska where none exists today.

I urge you to approve the merger.